Micaela Bates, MA

Meet Child and Adolescent Behavioral Health's Micaela Bates, who is the school-based therapist at Alliance Middle School.

Micaela, who graduated from Eastern High School in Louisville, Ky., went on to earn her bachelor's in psychology and communications and media studies from Georgetown College, and her master's in clinical psychology from the University of Indianapolis. She is currently working on her clinical psychology doctorate degree at the University of Indianapolis.

Micaela said the best part of her job is, "I love working with children and adolescents and being a safe and consistent person when it feels like everything else is changing. I feel so fortunate that I get to be a part of the change process and can help instill hope in the youth who need it the most."

Hobbies: hiking, enjoying the outdoors, drinking as much coffee as possible and spending time with family and friends.

Favorite book: Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix

Favorite movies: Miss Congeniality

Child and Adolescent Behavioral Health's (C&A's) school-based consultation services include behavioral health screening and referral, crisis intervention, student social/emotional skill development and behavioral health and wellness education, community linkage and referrals, parent/guardian engagement/education, CARE team meetings and collaboration with school staff. When indicated, students may receive formal diagnostic and treatment services, provided at the school, by the school-based therapist.

- Students are referred to counseling by school staff and CARE teams to screen for mental health or substance issues
  - Parents are asked to be engaged in the process
  - C&A will assist with linking families to community resources as needed.
  - C&A's clinical staff collaborates closely with school staff to enhance a supportive social/emotional school environment
